UNITED SUSTAINABLE ENERGY AGENCY (USEA)

The USEA manages the Energy Saving Trust advice centre for the South East. The centre provides impartial energy saving advice to the residents of Bucks, Berks, Oxon, Hants and the Isle of Wight. USEA also offers a comparison service called Cocoon.

Cocoon is a free, independent, comparison service established since 2003. It is currently being promoted by local authorities across Buckinghamshire, Bedfordshire, Berkshire and Oxfordshire and Hampshire. The service offers callers between two to five estimates from reputable professional insulation installers, including any council, government or energy supplier grants or discounts for which you may be eligible. More at www.cocoonyourhome.co.uk.

If you are getting poor returns on your investments, why not try energy saving?

One of the biggest savers, cavity wall insulation, is very likely to cost nothing if you are 70 or over.

Energy Saving Trust estimates that simple changes could save most households £300 a year.

Try the on-line home energy check at www.est.org.uk/check see if this applies to you, or call 0800 512 012.

The Milton Keynes Branch of the WEA is offering a short course entitled “Olympics, Airports and Art Museums”. This will showcase the work of London’s architects and engineers who have created audacious new designs in this recent period of unparalleled building all around the world. It will also discuss how to assess the qualities (or otherwise) of these buildings, including the important relationship between their form and their functions. The course will start on Thursday 5th November and will run for five weeks from 10.45 to 12.45 at Rectory Cottages, Church Green Road, Bletchley. The fee is £34.00. For further information please contact Roy Chapman 01908 568921

BOW BRICKHILL CLUB

Our meeting on Tuesday October 6th, not only our Annual General Meeting, was in fact our 10th Anniversary, and needless to say very well attended. The afternoon commenced with our annual “Bring and Buy” sale, bringing in some very welcome visitors. We continued with tea, complete with celebration cake. Yes, it did have icing! Tea was followed by the Chairman’s report, in which two of our retiring committee members, Rosemary Guess and Shirley Parker, were thanked for their hard work during the last ten years.

It was then time to make plans for our Christmas lunch and the drawing of our monthly raffle. All too soon our meeting came to an end and we left the Pavilion with the hope that we shall continue with another successful 10 years of the Bow Brickhill Club.

Our next meeting on November 3rd will be the first of this year’s winter time change, when we start at 1.00pm with a buffet lunch, to be followed at 1.45pm by the U3A Singers, who will be making a very welcome return to the club with a programme of carols and verse. The programme will end at 2.30pm when we shall have the opportunity to chat with our visitors over a cup of tea and a mince pie.

We are looking forward to a festive afternoon in the Pavilion, from 1pm to 3pm.

CLICK AND CLACK KNITTING GROUP

We’d like to start up a ‘Click and Clack’ knitting and sewing group in the village, meeting at The Wheatsheaf, once or twice a month.

If you’re interested please contact Elaine on 377543 email elaineaboscott@btinternet.com) or Gill on 373602 email candishtowers@gmail.com and let us know which night of the week would suit you best.

COPY DEADLINE – DECEMBER/JANUARY

Deadline for a combined December/January issue should be sent by 23rd November to Gill Cannell – email bowbrickhillpavilion@gmail.com

WI

At our recent meeting member Carol Stewart brought along her comprehensive collection of Laura Ashley clothes and gave a fascinating insight into the life and times of the designer/business woman.

Laura was born into the Mountney family in Dowlais, near Merthyr Tydfil where the early years of her education took place, followed by a period in Croydon but this was disrupted when war broke out.

She was evacuated back to Wales and attended Aberdare Secretarial School.

Towards the end of the war she secretly joined the WRENS and was working on teleprinters at the time of the D-Day landings.

After the war, she took a secretarial job at WI headquarters in London and it was during this period that she visited a WI display of traditional handicrafts at the Victoria and Albert Museum which was to be the inspiration for her printed fabrics.

In 1949 she married Bernard Ashley and with his business skills, they set up a company initially making household goods such as tea towels and table mats, moving on to head scarves and finally to her dresses. The company went from strength to strength, finally going public in 1985.

The competition for an item beginning with letter 'I' was won by our speaker, Carol, with a very attractive ice bowl incorporating flowers, perfectly complementing the topic of her presentation. The raffle was won by Ann Pickersgill and Sally Robinson

BOW BRICKHILL HISTORY SOCIETY

If you have an interest in the rich history of our village please come along to the second meeting of the History Society which will take place on

Wednesday 4th November in the Church Hall
at 8 pm.

At this meeting we hope to elect a steering committee and agree the Society's aims, as well as deciding upon some initial projects for study.

If you have any questions or suggestions, please contact Sue Malle-son on 01908 372376 or email sue@bowbrickhill.com.

Come and join us for a relaxed evening of shopping and pampering at the pavilion

FIREWORKS

During firework displays your pets need extra care.

Keep cats and dogs in and close all external windows and doors

Bring hutches indoors and provide extra bedding for small mammals.

If you can't bring them in face away from garden and cover with blankets to dull the noise and reduce flashing whilst allowing enough ventilation.

Ensure cats and dogs wear id tags in case they run away

Let neighbours know if you will be lighting fireworks

ALL SAINTS – AND ALL SINNERS

Dear friends,

In the church's year, Sunday 1st November is called 'All Saints Day'.

At a conference this summer, I met a group from Denver, Colorado who had started a church called the 'House for all Sinners and Saints'. Their name was chosen to make a serious point. It is not that some people are sinners, and other people are saints, but the reality is that we are all both sinners and saints.

'Sinners' are those who do wrong, who do evil. And all of us are less than perfect, and so we do what we know to be wrong, and cause harm to ourselves and others.

'Saints' are those who are holy, who are special. And we are all saints, because we have been made in God's image, and we all reflect something of the wonder and glory of God, and have received God's gift of life.

People often think that those who go to church are making some claim to be 'good enough', or better than others. But the opposite is true. I often tell people that I go to church because I know that I'm not good enough, and I need help. Within the gathering of people that is the church, the body of Christ, I can be helped to face the truth of my sinfulness, and I can be assured that I am forgiven by God – God who made me, and who loves me.

This is the kind of love we are talking about – not that we once upon a time loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as a sacrifice to clear away our sins.
(1 John 4. 10)

So who is church for? It is for those who know themselves to be 'sinners-and-saints' –so it is for all of us.
